Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

■ I'm extremely busy and think warranties cost too much. Why should I consider RSW?

How about the lowest cost warranty in the Industry!

■ How low is low?

The administrative fee is only $25 per home.

■ What do I get for only $25?

First, the warranty clearly designates the structural elements being warranted. Next, the built-in dispute resolution process has a proven success record in resolving conflicts between builders and buyers. Plus, you can competitively market your homes with a third party warranty for only $25. And you're able to limit your liability.

■ What value does it offer my buyers?

They get a written warranty instead of an implied one.

Their warranty remains in effect even if something happens to you.

They can renew their RSW warranty for longer term benefits. RSW is the warrantor after the first year.

■ I'm still skeptical. What about hidden costs, paperwork and the fine print?

The only other cost you have is the annual membership fee of $295. As for paperwork, you fill out an enrollment form for each home and give your buyer the warranty.

Believe us when we say it is really simple. There is no fine print. The program is straightforward and provides a positive impact for your business.
